Lebanon Lutheran School is a joint ministry of St. Peter's (LCMS) and Immanuel (NALC) Lutheran Churches of Lebanon. Located on two campuses northeast of Watertown, the school offers a Christian-based total educational program for infant and children through grade 8.

The low student-to-teacher ratio ensures that all students receive the attention they deserve from experienced, state licensed, Christian teachers.

In addition to a comprehensive academic program, there are many additional opportunities for students to excel at Lebanon Lutheran School.

Lebanon Lutheran School is fully accredited by the National Lutheran School Accreditation (NLSA) process of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod.

The facilities include gymnasium, libraries, music room, cafeteria, two playgrounds, childcare facility, and sports fields.

Our technology includes interactive educational display, chromebooks and iPads.

Busing is offered through Watertown Unified School System.

Hot lunch is served daily, including free/reduced lunch.

Lebanon Lutheran accepts students of any race, color, nationality or ethnic origin.

"LLS helped me grow and make friendships I'll never forget. I am thankful for being able to learn about Christ on a daily basis, and spreading that with my friends."

Carson Peirick,
Class of 2017

"I experienced many laughs and fond memories. The teachers were my friends, and recesses always held something fun and new. I was sad to leave my beloved grade school but Lebanon Lutheran school will always hold a place in my heart."

Sierra Ebert, Class of 2015
